

Initial application for recognition

As a student group at the University of Hohenheim

The application is divided into two parts:

The information in the first part is compulsory (fields are each marked with a *).

These form the Basis on which it is decided whether or not the group can be recognized as a student group at the University of Hohenheim. The recognition and verification is done by the General Students' committee. In order to be recognized the group must meet certain criteria, which will be checked. For these benchmarks we refer you to the list of criteria. The recognition as a student group allows groups, to use rooms of the university. We collect additional information on the basis of the administrative regulation of the Ministry of Science, Research and the Arts of Baden-Württemberg on 4 May 2007 (Ref .: 14-369.3 / 132), which regulates the transfer of university spaces, i.V.m. VwV buildings from. 1 January 2005 and § 63. 3-5 LHO.

In the second part, you can give voluntary information that will form the basis for publications on the University website.
