

Constituted student body

Student Parliament

University of Hohenheim (805) – 70599 Stuttgart

Stuttgart- Hohenheim, 15.04.2024
 Editor: StuPa
 Phone (0711) 459 - 22060
 Fax (0711) 459 - 24229
 E-Mail: stupa@uni-hohenheim.de

General Assembly on 22.04.2024 at 6 pm in the Otto Rettenmaier Audimax

Status Quo

We currently pay 48,20 € for our VVS ticket as part of the semester fee. In return, we have the opportunity to use public transport in the VVS area after 6 pm and on weekends and public holidays.

This is called the partial solidarity model. However, this arrangement will be discontinued by the winter semester 2025/2026 at the latest.

Brief presentation of the models

Model 1: No semester ticket

Pro	Contra
Semester fee drops to 138,50 € (48,20 € less than now)	Students over 27 have no discounted ticket option
Students under the age of 27 can use the D-Ticket-JugendBW if required	The student ID card is no longer a semester ticket
	Minimum purchase period of one year
	Lack of certainty of price increases & retention of the discounted subscription offer

Age of the student	Old semester fee	New semester fee	New semester fee with additional ticket (if you decide to personally purchase one)
Under 27	186,70 €	138,50 €	321 €
Over 27	186,70 €	138,50 €	432,50 €

Semester fee without additional ticket: 138,50 €

Semester fee with additional Deutschland-Ticket-JugendBW for students under 27: 321 €

Semester fee with additional Deutschland-Ticket for students over 27: 432,50 €

Model 2: Full solidarity model including Deutschland-Ticket

Pro	Contra
Consists of a discounted public transport ticket for all students	Students are obliged to pay a higher semester contribution, regardless of whether they actually use the ticket
The ticket is valid for one semester	Increase of semester fee to 314,90 € (128,20 € higher)
The ticket is valid throughout all of Germany
Contributes to sustainable mobility

Age of the student	Old semester fee	New semester fee
Under 27	186,70 €	314,90 €
Over 27	186,70 €	314,90 €

Semester fee including Deutschland-Ticket for all students: 314,90 €